CARELESS TARGET SHOOTING .- The soldiers from the barracks, often, while target shoot-ing, on the commons, near Hooper's Hill, make some wild shots, so that it is unsafe for any one to be within range of their guns. A ball came within a few feet of one our citizens the other day, when it should have taken an entirely different direction. The practise of firing at a mark is squads is a good one and very necessary, but there should be great caution taken to avoid acci-

Frantontion of Rev. Sabin Hough on a Charge of Treason-Important Corre-

The examination of the Rev. Sabin Hough The examination of the Rev. Sabin Hough on a charge of treason took place before United States Commissioner Holliday, resterday, the prosecution being conducted by District Attorney Ball, and the defense by Hon. George E. Pugh. But few witnesses were examined, the prosecution relying chiefly upon correspondence running through the months of May, June, July, August and September, which was very voluminous, but all consisted of letters written by other parties, none of his own being found.

ties, none of his own being found.

The first witness was Samuel Colby, was present at the arrest of Mr. Hough, being one of the Deputy Marshalz. He found Mr. H. in the third story of his residence, No. 105 Smith-street. He identified the letters and papers presented by the District-At-torney as being the same found in the room. He had but little to say to the accused, the latter, however, alleging that he had aban-doned the publication of the Banner of Reunion about two weeks before.

The following are among the letters read:

LETTER FROM SENATOR BAYAND. DELAWARE, July 14 Dear Sir: I thank you for your let-ter, and the copies of the paper you sent me, which you have lately com-menced in Cincinnati. I wish to God more men in the non-slaveholding States thought with you, and we should never have reached our present unhappy condition. We have entered on a civil war, and the termination of which no man can predict; and alas! for our country, unless the people of the United States soon demand peace from their rulers, nothing but ruin and destruction can come to the whole country, North and South, with the subversion of Republican Government and the substitute of a military despotism. I think the earnest efforts of every wellwisher of their country should now be for an armistice, negotiations, and time and opportunity of settlement. Reason might then resume her sway, and if we possibly can, the Union be restored in its integrity.

"If that were impracticable from the people both North and South, then I prefer two Republics, living in peace and close alliance, to the continuance of war and its inevitable re-rult; if successful, a military despotism, and the utter destruction of civil liberty. * * "Yours, J. A. BAYARD." PROM J. PUNNETT, PRESIDENT OF THE BANK OF AMERICA, N. Y. "Please send as many copies as you can of paper No. 2, which I have read with great satisfaction. Receive inclosed $5, as a sub-scription for as many copies of your paper as it will command. Send papers to Mrs. Car-per, care of J. Punnett, 46 Wall-street."

FROM J. H. BEOTHERTON, ST. LOUIS. "Sr. Louis, July 31, 1861.

Rev. Sabin Hough:
"Dear Sir-1 have been quite direlect in failing to reply to several of your communicatons, and certainly owe you an apology. Lat-terly I have been entertaining the hope that since war is upon us, some decisive event would transpire giving char eter to the strug-gle. The events of Sunday, July 21, are some-what gratifying, but as a looker, on simply who has no interest outside of his business interests, save a love of justice, I could have rejoiced at a more complete success of the Confederate arms. That the only settlement possible is to be brought about in this way, is clear, and that it will be brought about in good time I quite believe. (The remainder of the letter is chiefly of a private character.) "Mrs. B. and Mrs. Green, (who is a good Secessionist), send their love to you. "J. H. BROTHERTON."

FROM E. U. NORBURY. "BISHOP'S HILL, ILL., July 22, '61.

Rev. Sabin Hough. "Dear Sir: I have received the first and second packages of the first issue of the Banner, and one of the number two, and have distributed all of number one, and will send out number two to-day.

"I am glad to hear that you have 'a few brave hearts' with you in the work you are doing. They are needed if you shall get along with the undertaking. If you have rot better success at other localities than here, I can not see how you can get through.
I have done the best I possibly can, but can not at present collect any money.

(The letter is long, but is altogether an effort to excuse himself for not getting more subscribers. He even says people weat give corn for it.)

"In haste. Yours very respectfully,
"E. U. NORBURY."

Rev. Sabin Hough—Dear Sir: I thank

It is written that "blessed are the peace makers," and ye the whole church of the Prince of Peace (!) is maddening and thirsting for blood—the blood of our bretheren-preacher, praying, fighting. Was ever people before delivered over to such folly and wickedness? Truly you have said that it is "from bell and not from Heaven.

for any thing except peaceable separation, Very truly, C. L. VALLANDIGHAM. DATTON, April 30, 1861. DAYTON, April 39, 1881.

Rev. Sabin Hough, Cincinnati, Ohio—Dear Sir: I have just 'received yours, and concur with you heartly. The storm is passing, and I hope reason may return, and peace for the present with it. Beyond that I see nothing but separation, first of the free States and slave, and then of the West from the East, and then—I know not what. I have an interest in the East, and then—I know not what. no interest in the Empire, but the editor is one of my best friends, and I will adopt your suggestion gladly. On Sunday night in Wesley Chapel (Methodist Episcopal,) divine (?) services were concluded by singing the "Star Spangled Banner." In the United Presbyterian (Dr. Thomas's,) an "Ode to Liberty" (negro liberty) was sing by the choir, first being regularly given out by the Doctor from the pulpit. What next? I shall watch the first favorable chance to move publicly for peace, and restoration if possible.

Truly, we have fallen upon evil times. But I believe, as God rules, that all will come right in due season. Truly,

A circular and several copies of the Banner of Reunion were brought in as evidence, from the first of which we extract the following insane suggestion:
"In view of these facts (the discontent of the South), and to settle the question forever, the plan I propose and advocate is that the Federal Constitution be so amended that no State shall have power or right to prevent the existence and practice of negro slavery, so far as relates to its essential principle. That principle is the right of property in the labor of the slave, with free use, control, direction or removal of that property, subject to the condition that the servant whose labor is thus owned shall receive just and humane treatment and protection; also a permaneut support from his master's es-

"Let these rights and provisions in behalf of master and servant be definitely secured by the Federal Constitution, but leave each State full right and power to make its own slave code, and thus give the slave such pro-tection, means of redress, and securities for good treatment, as may be deemed just and

Mr. Pugh, during the progress of the trial, several times took exceptions to the course of the prosecution, but was overruled by the Court in every instance.

The case was finally submitted without argument, and the Commissioner announced that he would give his decision at two o'clock to-day.

taken at 6@8 per cent. We have no changes to note in Gold, Exchange or Uncurrent Funds, from Saturday's quotations.

The activity that has characterized the demand for Treasury Sixes still continues. The buying rate has advanced to 981/2@99c., depending upon date. Those issued on the 18th of this month are bought at 981/c.

No change at St. Louis or Louisville. The New York Times of Saturday, says of the Money market:

of the same class."

We are pleased to learn that the Dry goods house of Claffin, Mellin & Co. will resume payment in full on the 16th inst. They will not only pay their debts, but it is believed will have a large surplus, with which they will continue their business as heretofore. This early resumption of a prominent bouse will revive confidence in the general Mercantile Paper which has hitherto been regarded with so much distrust.

The excitement at the Sub-Treasury in regard to the National Loan is quite equal to that of yesterday. The number of applicants is very large, and the aggregate is nearly as large as for any other day, being $995,311.

One subscription of $100,000 was received from a Benk and one of $50,000 from a from a Bank, and one of $50,000 from a prominent citizen. The character of the subscriptions to-day is very encouraging, indicating that patriotic impulse to sustain the Government is pervading every class. "The Banks are receiving to-day from the Sub-Treasury $1,400,000, and accrued interest for sales of Treasury-notes made to the public. The called installment of $3,500,000 will be paid on Saturday or Monday.
